

Police and Crime Commissioner for Surrey – Decision Making Record

Victims Fund – November 2016

Decision number: 159/2016 Damian Markland, Policy Officer

Protective Marking: Part One

1.0 Bid Summary:

In October 2014, the Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) took responsibility for commissioning support services for victims of crime to help them cope and recover. For the financial year of 2016/17 the PCC was allocated £1,372,554 by the Ministry of Justice (MoJ) for the commissioning and/or provision of emotional and practical support services for victims' of crime.

National Ugly Mugs (NUM) is a national organisation which provides greater access to justice and protection for sex workers who are often targeted by dangerous individuals but are frequently reluctant to report these incidents to the police. These offenders are often serial sexual predators who pose a significant risk to the public as a whole.

Surrey Police has historically made an annual donation to support the work of Ugly Mugs and the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner has agreed to provide funding from the Victim's Fund to facilitate this.

2.0 Police and Crime Commissioner's decision:

The Commissioner agreed:

- to make a donation of £3,000 to support the work of National Ugly Mugs.
- that this funding would be taken from the devolved MoJ Victim Fund.
