- (b) having consulted the line manager or second line manager of the officer concerned and the officer concerned, is satisfied that the officer concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity to address the relevant inability or failure to perform, but has failed to make a sufficient improvement.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations revoke and re-enact the Police (Performance) Regulations 2012 (S.I. 2012/2631) (“the 2012 Regulations”), with modifications to reflect changes to the handling of police complaints and police discipline matters made by the Policing and Crime Act 2017 (c. 3) (“the 2017 Act”) and the Police (Conduct) Regulations 2019 (S.I. 2019/[]) (“the Conduct Regulations”).

The Regulations establish procedures for proceedings in respect of unsatisfactory performance or attendance of members of police forces of the rank of chief superintendent or below (excluding probationers) and special constables.

Part 1 deals with preliminary matters, including, in regulation 3 the revocation of the 2012 Regulations and in regulation 4 interpretation provisions. Part 2 contains general provisions. Part 3 deals with first stage meetings and first stage appeal meetings. Part 4 deals with second stage meetings and second stage appeals meetings. Part 5 deals with third stage meetings.

Regulations 12 and 13 reflect changes to Schedule 3 to the Police Reform Act 2002 (c. 30) made by the 2017 Act. Regulation 14 is new. This makes provision for cases which are referred by the appropriate authority under the Conduct Regulations to be dealt with under these Regulations. It applies regulation 12 with modifications to such cases.

Regulation 24 is a new provision which enables the appropriate authority to require a second stage meeting in circumstances where there has not been a first stage meeting. The regulation applies where a matter is referred under the Conduct Regulations to be dealt with under these Regulations and the appropriate authority (a) considers there are reasonable grounds to conclude that the officer concerned has demonstrated a serious inability or failure to perform the duties of the officer’s rank or role to a satisfactory standard such that referral to a second stage meeting is appropriate; and (b) having consulted, is satisfied that the officer concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity to address the issue, but has failed to make a sufficient improvement.

Regulations 32 and 33 reflect changes to Schedule 3 to the Police Reform Act 2002 made by the Policing and Crime Act 2017.

There are further minor differences between these Regulations and the 2012 Regulations to reflect the changes made by the 2017 Act and the Conduct Regulations.

An impact assessment has not been produced for these Regulations as no impact on the private, voluntary or public sectors is foreseen.
