

Police and Crime Commissioner for Surrey – Decision Making Record

Victims Fund – March 2015 application

Decision number: 091/2015

Author and Job Role: Lisa Herrington, Victims Policy Officer

Protective Marking: Part One

Executive Summary

In October 2014, the Police and Crime Commissioner took responsibility for commissioning support services for victims of crime to help them cope and recover.

For the financial year of 2015/16 the PCC was allocated £1,276,567 by the Ministry of Justice for the commissioning and/or provision of emotional and practical support services for victims' of crime.

In addition the PCC for 2015/16 has made available £690,920 of funding to ensure continued support to local community, voluntary and faith organisations.

A funding application for £100,000 was received from the lead provider of domestic abuse services in Surrey (East Surrey Domestic Abuse Services), which was approved to be funded equally from both funding streams detailed above. This represents the OPCC contribution towards funding these vital services, in a partnership arrangement with Surrey County Council and Surrey Police.
