

Police and Crime Commissioner for Surrey – Decision Making Record

Victims Fund

Decision number: 003/2018

Author and Job Role: Damian Markland, Victims Policy Officer

Protective Marking: OFFICIAL

1.0 Executive Summary

In October 2014, the Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) took on responsibility for commissioning support services for victims of crime to help them cope and recover.

For the financial year 2017/18 the PCC was allocated £1,370,103 by the Ministry of Justice for the commissioning and/or provision of emotional and practical support services for victims' of crime.

In accordance with the Police and Crime Commissioner's Commissioning Strategy, a proportion of this funding is set aside at the start of the financial year to support a number of 'core services'. A proportion of funding is also made available to support ad-hoc projects and initiatives and on this basis the PCC has agreed to the following funding request:

2.0 Agreed funding

yourSanctuary – DA Refuge Transition Fund: £10,000

To provide a transition fund so that families attending the refuge can be provided with a pack of basic living essentials on arrival that they can take with them when they move on to independent living.

Reigate & Banstead Women's Aid – DA Refuge Transition Fund: £10,000

To provide a transition fund so that families attending the refuge can be provided with a pack of basic living essentials on arrival that they can take with them when they move on to independent living.

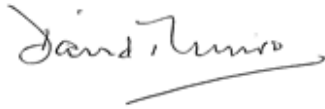

Surrey Police CSE Training: £5,000

Surrey Police are rolling out 15 weeks of training for all response officers and wish to book Sammy Woodhouse to provide an input. Sammy has previously spoken publically about how as a 14 year old child she was physically, sexually and emotionally abused by the leader of a child grooming gang in Rotherham. The intention of the presentation is to help to change officers' mind-set when dealing with missing children, specifically to think of reports as indicators of harm.

3.0 Police and Crime Commissioner Approval

I approve the recommendations as detailed in Section 2.0 of this report.
