2020/03	Please provide details of grants awarded in the financial years 2017-2018 and 2018-2019 •For which at least one of the outputs/outcomes was to provide services to victims of stalking. This could be any service to help victims e.g. counselling, information and advice, casework however there must be specific reference to working with victims of stalking. •Please provide details of the grant including the amount, the service provider, the services provided and the specific stalking outcome/output. •Please indicate with a y/n if the service is open to victims of stalking who are not ex-intimate in the table below	Unfortunately Surrey OPCC has not awarded grants to organisations which specifically provide services to victims of stalking in 2017-2018 or 2018-2019. However, the Domestic Abuse services we provide grant funding to will support victims of stalking due to the relationship between stalking and DA. The outcome measures for these services do not directly reference stalking. In Surrey any stalking victims are currently signposted to Suzy Lamplugh or Paladin. Work is currently ongoing between Surrey OPCC and Surrey Police to implement a county-wide stalking service in 2020-2021 but this is still in the initial stages.

2020/19	I am a lifelong Farnham resident, and recently emailed my local MP Jeremy Hunt after seeing the most recent stop and search statistics of Surrey Police (https://www.police.uk/pu/your-area/surrey-police/performance/stop-and-search/). I was so alarmed to see that Black people in Surrey are (19.308 / 2.496 =) 7.7 times more likely to be stopped and searched by the police than white people. It shows my privilege that I was not aware of this disparity previously, but I found these figures unconscionable and disturbing. Instead of informing me of any action that he has been and is taking to address this, Mr Hunt said I should email you. I would like to know: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.what Surrey police are doing about this? 2.Is this an increase or decline from recent years? 3.Have policies been put in place to try to address it? 4.If so – what has been the impact of those policies? Buried on the last page of your Police and Crime Plan for Surrey 2018-2020 you pledged to 'continue to scrutinise the Surrey Police on areas such as stop and search and use of force'. In light of the disturbingly stark racial disparity, whatever action you have taken to hold the Chief Constable to account has not been enough. Therefore I would also like to know: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5.What are the police are planning to do differently in the future? 6.How are you planning to effectively hold the police accountable to force the police to address this issue? 	At first glance the figures are alarming and you are correct to challenge us on them. However, the picture is a little more complex than it might first appear, as I shall try to explain. The disproportionality rate for Surrey is based on the 2011 census date, and it is likely that Surrey's population has become more diverse in the last nine years, meaning the true disproportionality rate is likely to be less. Furthermore, Surrey borders areas that have higher BAME populations that visit or travel through the county, which again impacts on the disproportionality rate. Lastly, the "find" rate, where officers will find items they are searching for – drugs, weapons, burglary equipment – for BAME populations is higher than it is for white people, which suggests that officers are not abusing their powers and targeting members of the BAME community on poor grounds. The figures and performance are closely monitored by the Commissioner's Office and Surrey Police. Additionally, there is an external scrutiny group, made up from a mix of people from different cultures, ethnicities and backgrounds, where the figures and reasons are scrutinised, random Stop and Search forms are examined and officer performance is reported on. Nonetheless, Surrey Police takes any allegation or instance of discrimination seriously. If you have information, or wish to make a complaint regarding discriminatory actions of a member of Surrey Police, you are advised to contact its Professional Standards Department (PSD)
