

Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner CODE OF CONDUCT

I. Introduction

This Code applies to me in the office of the Police and Crime Commissioner when acting or representing to act in that role. This code also applies to my Deputy PCC, when acting or representing to act in that role.

This code does not apply when I am acting in a purely private capacity.

I have adopted this code and have agreed to abide by its provisions.

The Policing Protocol¹ provides that all parties will abide by the seven principles set out in the Standards in Public Life: First Report of the Committee on Standards in Public Life known as the Nolan Principles (below).

Selflessness

Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.

Integrity

Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.

Objectivity

Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.

Accountability

Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.

Openness

Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for doing so.

Honesty

Holders of public office should be truthful.

¹The Policing Protocol Order 2011 No. 2744

Leadership

Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.

2. General Obligations
